TO-MORROW'S MENU.

(PREPARED SPECIALLY FOR "THE TIMES" BY HELEN LOUISE JOHNSON, IN CHARGE OF THE PURE FOOD EXPOSITION.)

Breakfast: Fruit, Sugar and cream, French fried potatoes.

Wheatlet, Dried beef cooked with cream, French fried potatoes.

Toast, Coffee, Lunch: Roast oysters, Bread and butter.

Fruit, Tea, Wafer, Dinner: Yellow soup, Brown sauce.

Veal cutlet, Boiled potatoes, String beans, Walrus, Lemon ice, Coffee.

Roast Oysters: Carefully wash the shells, put them round side down in a baking-pan and place in the hot oven; when done—that is, as soon as the shells have opened—take from the oven, remove the upper shell, season with salt and pepper and a little butter, and serve while very hot.

DAINTY TIDBITS: Learn to Make at Least One of these French Creams—Four cups of white sugar, one cup of butter, flavor with vanilla, put the sugar and water in a bright tin pan on the range and let it boil about eight minutes without stirring; if it looks some what thick test it by dropping some with a spoon; if it strings put the pan on the table, taking a small spoonful and rubbing it against the side of a bowl; should it then be creamy and easy to roll into a ball between the fingers, pour the whole into the bowl and beat rapidly with a large spoon or porcelain potato masher. If it is not boiled enough to cream, replace it on the range, let it remain one or two minutes, or as long as necessary, taking care not to let it cook too much. Add the flavoring, which need not be confined to vanilla, as soon as it begins to cool.

EVERETT TART—Boil one pound of best brown sugar in half a pint of water, when thick drop a few drops in a cup of cold water, and if the drops retain their shape and become little add two ounces of butter and boil a few moments until it will harden again. Flavor with lemon.

PEPPERMINT CREAMS—Take two cups of sugar, two-thirds of a cup of boiling water, one teaspoonful of glucose, and two pinches of cream of tartar. Boil until it threads, cool slightly, and beat until it begins to thicken. Then flavor with peppermint according to taste, and drop on tin.

ORANGE STRAWS—Take the peel of oranges and throw into cold water, boiling until the peel is tender. Use plenty of water and change after an hour's boiling, as the water grows very bitter. Throw the peel into a colander to drain, and when cool cut into long, narrow strips with scissors. Make a syrup of one pound of sugar, put in a pound of orange peel, and boil twenty-five minutes. Take the strips from the syrup with a fork and place upon plates to dry in the tin oven or near a stove. It may require two days for the "straws" to dry sufficiently to pack in boxes.

PUZZLED THE DOCTORS.

Two Cases that Defied Medical Skill for Years.

By keeping the nervous system in a sound, healthy condition, you thereby avoid a multitude of derangements and diseases. Miss Sadie Lorimer, of Berwyn, Pa., is one of the many who have learned this useful lesson. In a letter dated November 8, she says:

"Since the winter of 1889, when I had the grip, I have been an invalid. I was reduced to a skeleton and thought I had consumption. Doctors' prescriptions did me no good. Three months ago I wrote to Dr. Walker, of Washington, and he has cured me."

Mr. Joseph D. Gatto, a well-known citizen of the District, states his experience as follows:

"For the past three years I have been a great sufferer from nervous debility. My entire nervous system was unstrung; I felt blue, miserable, nervous, and I felt constantly tired and languid. I would frequently wake up in the morning more fatigued than when I went to bed. I tried doctors and patent medicines over and over again, but all failed to reach the condition that mine was a hopeless and incurable case, when I was induced by a friend to make one more trial, and I placed myself under the care of Dr. Walker. His treatment worked like magic. My troubles ceased, my nerves became steady, my brain clear, and I once more looked bright to me. I have talked with dozens of Dr. Walker's patients, and all are loud in their praise. I have been employed for the past year at the St. Elizabeth Insane Asylum, at Anacostia, and reside with my family at Congress Heights."

(Signed) "J. B. GATTON." Sworn to before me this 21st day of November, A. D. 1894.

(Seal) HENRY STEWART, Jr., Notary Public.

It must be admitted that Dr. Walker has a record of cures such as has never been achieved by any other physician in the treatment of all disorders of the brain and nervous system, diseases of the skin and blood, catarrh, asthma, consumption, dyspepsia, malaria, rheumatism, neuritis, hemorrhoids, diseases of women, and all affections of the lungs, throat, heart, liver, stomach, kidneys, bladder, bowels, and other organs.

Men suffering from nervous debility or loss of capacity as a result of overwork, mental worry, or past follies and excesses are quickly restored to sound, vigorous manhood by Dr. Walker's treatment.

Dr. Walker may be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter. His well-known sanitarium, at 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel, is open daily for consultation and treatment. Office hours, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 9; Sundays, 10 to 12.

Changes for treatment very low.

All interviews and correspondence strictly confidential. No cases made public without consent of patients.
